

Questions to Consider

Instead of an iconic dish, Seattle boasts iconic ingredients—do you agree? Why or why not?

If you were to pick one food that defines the city, which one would you nominate and why?

What is your favorite Seattle food innovation?
What is unique about it? Draw or describe it below:

Can you find all of these mushrooms?

EDIBLE CITY

a delicious journey

Gallery Activity

MOHAI

MUSEUM OF HISTORY & INDUSTRY

Now through September 10, 2017

UE/MS

Raw Ingredients

1 Find this photo! Can you find the tool used to build boxes like the one this berry picker is holding?

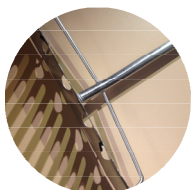

2 Find a tool used to forage wild mushrooms. Would you eat foraged food? Why or why not?

Process and Prep

3 If you were to start a restaurant that serves only one thing, what would it be?

4 What is this object used for?

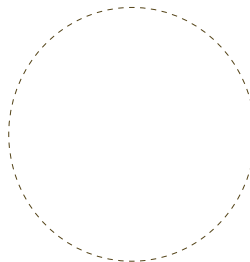

To Market, to Market

5 In the 1960s the city planned to tear down Pike Place Market. Why did citizens want to save it?

Design your own Save the Market pin!

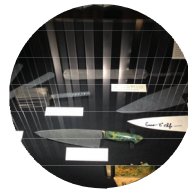

Bringing it Home

6 The Beacon Food Forest is an edible forest and neighborhood p-patch. What other ways for city dwellers to access fresh food do you see in this section?

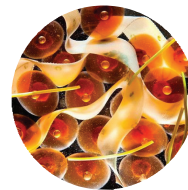

Cooking Tech-niques

7 Find these knives. What out of this world ingredient does Bob Kramer mix into some of his knives?

8 Using the modernist food photos as inspiration, describe or draw your own futuristic food below.

Serving it Up

9 Can you spot these creative restaurant decorations?

If you ran a restaurant, how would you decorate it?

